

READY FOR SCOUT DRIVE
NEXT WEEK*Aim to Raise Needed Ten Thousand Dollars in Two Days

As each district making up the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts, is rapidly securing personnel for its own Community drive for Boy Scout funds, reports indicate readiness Monday for the opening drive. The week will be Boy Scout Week in the Northwest Suburban Area; each district will launch a two-day campaign.

Plans call for meeting the night before the campaign, which all team captains and workers will attend, and final reports will be expected at District headquarters within 48 hours. Those in charge of campaigns plan a large corps of workers so that no one will have a great number of contacts to make, and every one will be given opportunity to contribute to Boy Scout Work.

The goal established for the entire Council is $10,000 and will provide administration of the Boy Scout program through 1930 and all 1931. With few exceptions very little has been contributed to Boy Scout Work during the past year, and consequently it is necessary to raise sufficient to pay off deficits in addition to the amount to continue the work the coming year.

An expansion and development program will enable nearly twice as many boys to become Scouts during the coming year. Institutions have signed intention to start new troops soon; and immediately following the Campaign a training course will be conducted at which all prospective and present Scout Leaders will have opportunity to learn more of the working and possibilities of the Boy Scout Program.

A Council Wide Rally at Camp Reinberg for all Scouts, leaders and friends is planned for November 1. This will be a Training outing, and the attendance of a large percentage of local members is anticipated. This will be held at Camp Reinberg. Those features and others to expand and develop Boy Scout work, are contingent on success of the coming campaign, and the council officials anticipate little difficulty to carry out the ambitious program established, if the community will assume their share of the cost of carrying the work along, so that those responsible for the success of Scouting can work on promotion and development work, unhindered by finance restrictions.

Now the day is over,
Night is drawing nigh,
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.

Uncle Bob Wilson from KYW at DesPlaines
Theatre Sat., Oct. 17th

Uncle Bob Wilson, the children's friend, from radio station KYW, Chicago, the man who has conducted the children's programs over said station for over seven years, was the first to start such programs and has made thousands of friends not only among the children, but the grown-ups as well. He is the originator of the children's Radio Safety Club, called "The Curb is the Limit Safety Club" with a big membership of 478,000 boys and girls all over the Chicago vicinity. Uncle Bob will appear at the DesPlaines Theatre this week Saturday night at both performances and sing and entertain you with all his famous Safety Songs.

Mysterious Woman Killed by Auto in Wheeling Saturday

A solicitor for the Volunteer Gospel Workers of America, Mrs. Kathryn Baldwin, aged about 60 years, was riding Saturday night with a young man, Joseph Conney who claims to be her nephew. They stopped on Milwaukee avenue in Wheeling about 1 1/2 mile south of Dundee road, and as she was crossing the road to get a barbeque sandwich, about 11 o'clock she was struck by an automobile and instantly killed.

The inquest held Monday at the Lauterburg and Oehler home for funerals in DesPlaines, was continued until October 23, to secure more witnesses. The body is being held in DesPlaines awaiting instructions and more word from relatives. The supposed nephew, whose speech showed him to be exceptionally well educated, stated that the woman was born in the Orient, that she had millions of dollars in property, including large land holdings in Mexico; nevertheless she was engaged in soliciting for the gospel workers. The body has the appearance of a woman of aristocratic character. The case has the marks of an interesting mystery.

"Sweet Peas and Fall Plantings," "Rock Gardens" Are Subjects

The next meeting of the Garden club will be on Wednesday, October 22, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Koepfel, 141 Park Lane, Stonegate. The topic will be "Sweet Peas and Hints for Fall Plantings."

The club met at the home of Mrs. Laura Meyer, 306 West Euclid, last Wednesday evening. The topic was "Rock Gardens." Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick gave many very helpful hints, many of them based on her own experiences. Mrs. Fitzpatrick's "rock" was very concise and outstanding in aiding to build a rock garden.

A representative of Vaughn's Seed Store also talked on the same subject. He used slides to illustrate his talk. The slides shown were among the most interesting that have been shown before the club, inasmuch as they were not tinted by hand as are most slides.

The coloring process is taken care of in the camera the minute the picture is taken. They were real colored pictures. Many interesting details of flowers widely known were emphasized through this new means of colored slides. The members have enjoyed many interesting and helpful meetings and very much credit is due the excellent program committee in charge.

"Sweet Job" for Convicts
After Raising Cane on Bottoms; "Cain" Before

Convicts committed to the state penal farm near Vandalia, have a "sweet job" at this season, from reports Director Rodney H. Brannan, of the department of public welfare received from A. C. Everingham, farm, garden and dairy consultant. The men are making 4,000 gallons of sorghum molasses. They raised cane all summer in the Kaskaskia bottoms. The sorghum mill is turning out about 200 gallons per day, and in spite of the dry season, the yield is estimated at about 100 gallons per acre. The sorghum will serve to feed the wards of Illinois at various state institutions.

Fred Eilken of DesPlaines Gone

The lifeless body of Fred Eilken, aged 58, 1504 Walnut street, Des Plaines, was found in his bed last Friday morning. He was believed to have had heart trouble. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Minnie Eilken, and a large family of grown children.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon in Immanuel Lutheran church, Rev. O. C. A. Boeler officiating; interment at Union Ridge cemetery.

Local Democratic Organization Invite Public to Party

The Democratic organization of the Northwest country towns, of which H. J. Harz is the district committeeman, has arranged for a complimentary party and dance to be given at Heine's place in Schaumburg Saturday evening, Oct. 24. Such parties which have proved so popular this year and are being followed by other Democratic organizations throughout the county, were first instituted by Mr. Harz and his associates early last winter, prior to the primary. The plan is now being followed out throughout the county.

The attendance at the Castle ball room in Elk Grove last week was a record breaker, but Mr. Harz expects that a still larger crowd will be at Heine's. There will be a good orchestra and between dances there will be opportunity to meet various Democratic candidates.

NEW RESIDENTS
ASK FOR SCHOOL
ANNEXATION*District 19 Will Benefit
If Sub Properties Go
School District 15

An effort is being made by residents in the McIntosh properties directly south of the village of Palatine for the annexation of 246 acres of subdivided land to school district 15 in order that the children of that fast growing district will be able to attend the grade school within the village. It is reported that the farm owners of District 19, in which the 246 acres are located are willing and glad to rid themselves of the problem of providing school facilities for the northern end of their district. The board of directors of the district realize that if the change is not made a second school house located somewhere near the subdivision properties will necessarily have to be built within the next few years.

District 19 is one of the wealthiest one room school districts in the state of Illinois. Its tax rate is one of the lowest in the state. It not alone has the benefit of the million dollar assessment against the race track, but the district is comprised of five sections and is the largest rural school district in this part of Cook county. The loss of the land affected is small compared to what is retained. If the change is not made a divided school district would result at some future time, with increased school taxes.

A petition is being circulated and it will soon be presented to the township board of school trustees, who must first act upon it. The county superintendent of schools has the final verdict.

The territory involved consists of the Engleking and Thies farms, 40 acres upon the east side of Plum Grove Ave. and 246 acres upon the west side. This territory is being settled by Chicago people, many of whom go to Palatine every day on their way to work. The school board of Palatine has been informally approached and there is plenty of room in the present school building to care for the additional pupils.

Before District 16 erected its new school house made necessary on account of the opening of the new subdivision, there was some talk of allowing part of that district to be annexed to the village district. On account of the small territory in District 16, the plan was thought impractical and a new school house was erected near the subdivision.

An effort was made ten days ago by one resident in District 13 to have his property separated from that of the district and added to District 15. In this case, the school trustees found that there was ample room in the recently built school house of District 13 to care for all children of the district and that while only two voters asked for the change there were over fifty who opposed the plan. They denied the petition.

Baseball Banquet
Closes 1930 Season
For the Red Wings

With all the members, their wives, and girl friends present, a very successful banquet was given by the club Saturday, October 11. It was held at the Union Hotel at Wheeling, Illinois. The dinner which was a grand seven course chicken dinner was followed by an hour and a half of speaking by the toastmaster and the members of the club.

All the members of the club as they were called upon by the toastmaster of the evening expressed themselves in regard to the future possibilities of the baseball team as well as the record of the past season during which they won 16 games and lost 5.

Every member spoke of his confidence in the team as a whole and in every other member as an individual. Congratulations to each member of the team, and a toast to the club expressing the aims of the organization were given by J. A. Cordulack, the toastmaster.

Mrs. Nick Fisher was also congratulated. She made a large layer cake trimmed in the colors of the club with the Red Wing team emblem ingeniously placed upon the top of the cake. It was placed in the center of the speakers' table with beautiful vases full of roses on either side.

After the speaking was completed every one joined in and took part in a novelty dance. The music was very nicely furnished by W. Landeck's orchestra of Arlington Heights.

Village Board to Act on Hospital Nex Tuesday

The official permit for the operation of the Mt. Prospect hospital is on the order of business for next Tuesday's meeting of the Mt. Prospect board of trustees. There is little other business of importance, however to be considered.

New School
Dedication
Friday Night

E. J. Tobin, county superintendent of schools and Mr. Hoffman, assistant state superintendent of schools are expected to be present at the dedication of the new two room school building of District 15, southwest of Palatine this Friday evening. Two years ago this school was closed several months and the tuition paid at district 15 for the few pupils who were in the district of school age. Today there are 36 children enrolled.

The program for Friday evening will be as follows:

Program
America, the Beautiful, school children.

Introduction of directors, Noble J. Puffer, Dir. of Ed. Div.

Welcome, Joseph E. Lang, president of the board of directors.

Model Achievement Meeting, pupils of the school.

Greetings, Homer J. Byrd, director of education Div. 2.

Music, Arlington Heights Lion's Club Orchestra.

Dedication address, Edward J. Tobin, county Supt. Schools, Cook county.

Music, Arlington Heights Lion's Club Orchestra.

Following the program refreshments will be served at a small charge. The proceeds will go to the purchase of new equipment needed in the school.

The records of the clerk of the school go as far back as 1875.

The new building complete as it stands, cost approximately $6,000. It is built to accommodate 80 pupils at the most and complies with the state law for standard school houses.

The mothers of the children of the district have furnished the teacher's desk. Through further projects they hope to add other equipment to the building.

MISSING MAIL IS FOUND BY
POST MASTER*Pouch Lost on August 23; Found in Culvert
by Fairbanks

A situation which had puzzled post office detectives for nearly 2 months was cleared up last Sunday when the local postmaster at Roselle, Fred Fairbanks, found a missing pouch of valuable mail in a culvert one mile west of Roselle.

This pouch which had been made up at Elgin and which was on a Chicago bound mail train on August 23 came up missing before the train reached Union station. The theory was that it had either been lost or stolen between Roselle and Hermosa station near Crawford.

While walking along the right of way of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. Sunday afternoon, Mr. Fairbanks noticed a letter lying along the bottom of the embankment and having the postmaster's keenness for letters he went down and examined it. It was unopened. This was near culvert 63 and looking further about he observed a bundle of letters upon the surface of the water in a small ditch there.

Mr. Fairbanks had been informed of the disappearance of the mail pouch on August 23 and the probable place where it occurred, consequently he concluded that what he had found was a part of the lost mail. Further digging in the mud and water brought several large packages of mail. These he took back to the Roselle post office.

Sunday night at 12 o'clock, Mr. Fairbanks with the night policeman returned to the spot and dug up from the water and mud a vast supply of mail. But the missing pouch could not be discovered.

It was not until the next morning when Mr. Fairbanks again returned with Mr. G. Pitman, rural carrier, to continue his searches that he found the lost mail bag which had been carried back into the five foot drain.

Chicago authorities were immediately notified of the recovery and some of the mail was dispatched to the Chicago office. Much of it, however, due to its unsalable condition was retained and is being held at the disposition of the main office.

Arlington Peaches
To Play Norwood
Park Sunday

The Arlington Peaches, known by most of the foot ball fans as the Arlington Boosters, will go to Norwood Park Sunday. Norwood Park claims to have a better team this year and if all reports are true, this will be a game well worth seeing. Let's all go with the boys and pull for them. Come on all you foot ball fans and help Arlington Hts. break the jinx that has caused them to be on the short end of the score the first two games of the season.

TAX AMENDMENT TURNED DOWN BY
CIVIC FEDERATION

The proposed tax amendment to the State constitution, which is one of the propositions which comes to a vote Nov. 4, is not only turned down by the Illinois Agricultural association (State federation of county farm bureaus) and the Illinois Manufacturers' association, but now the Civic Federation of Chicago, that watch dog for the property owners against taxation deemed unjustifiable.

The amendment "is badly drawn, makes new taxes sure, and relief doubtful," reads the recent bulletin. In other words, the Civic Federation sees the proposed amendment as granting authority for new forms of taxation without making it sure that the legislature has been given authority to employ the new forms of taxes as substitute to reduce the older forms of taxes.

A further fault found is that such municipal corporations as park boards, sanitary district, etc., will be given power to levy special assessments and impose special taxation for local improvements.

No lawyer has been found, the Federation's bulletin states, that has been able to see how the provisions of the proposed amendment could be applied without a great deal of litigation that would have to be carried to the Supreme court.

Bugaboo
Regarding one objection that has been made in Cook county: That it would tax Cook county to enrich the downstate, the Federation sees no truth in it, but rather that as 85 per cent of income taxes would go to the county, local taxing bodies would have rather the best of the bargain. The bulletin states:

We have no sympathy with the prevalent arguments raised by political opponents of the amendment to the effect that it threatens to tax Cook county citizens for the benefit of the rest of the state. On the contrary, we believe that proposed section 2 gives to local governments far greater opportunity to share in taxes collected by the state than is now possible.

The best in music has been promised and an enjoyable evening is promised for all who attend. Invitations are being extended to all residents of Mount Prospect and their friends.

STAGE HOLD UP IN BENSENVILLE
AND CAPTURED*Presence of Mind of J.
Capoot Results in Capture of 3 Youths

Harold Koenig and J. O. Capoot of Bensenville, were victims of a hold up about eleven o'clock Wednesday night, but due to the presence of mind of Mr. Capoot the three boys who staged the robbery were captured by the Elmhurst police a few minutes later. The boys refused to talk, but the evidence is strongly against them. They were also identified as the boys who staged a hold up an hour earlier at Glen Ellyn.

Wm. Peck, Mr. Capoot and Mr. Koenig were returning home from a Masonic meeting at Austin Wood street and when they were stopped at the corner of York and Green streets and Mr. Peck alighted it was the first intimation that they were being closely followed by another car. As Mr. Peck got out of the car, he remarked that he would have to be careful on account of the auto which was so close behind.

Mr. Koenig drove down Green street with the other car close behind, but neither of the two Bensenville men were suspicious, until their car was crowded into the curb at Addison street, when Mr. Koenig stopped to allow Mr. Capoot to get out of the car, he was confronted by a youth and a gun. A second youth held up Mr. Koenig, both of whom were relieved of their money. Mr. Capoot also lost his watch, which is now strong evidence against the robbers.

About this time, the car of Ex-chief Irwin driven by the latter's brother-in-law drove into sight and the boys, who appeared to recognize the car, cried, "here comes the police." Firing their guns in the air, they drove southward. Mr. Capoot secured some of the numbers on the car and immediately phoned the Elmhurst police. The latter had previously been notified of a hold up at Glen Ellyn and with this new clue was soon at the corner of York and Lake street, where a Chevrolet car occupied by three boys and bearing the license plate numbers mentioned by Mr. Capoot appeared upon the scene. The latter car turned east with the police in pursuit.

The chase lasted until near Maywood, where the police captured the boys, who, by that time, were unarmed, but the car contained gun shells that corresponded to shells that they had left near the scene of the Bensenville hold up. The police recovered a watch which the boys had thrown out of the car, and which Mr. Capoot later identified.

The victims of the Glen Ellyn hold up also identified the youths, and they were lodged in jail. They will, no doubt, be bound over to the grand jury.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY PLANS
ANNOUNCED*Hard Times Dress or Costume Will Admit You To Annual Event

Announcement was made at the Improvement association meeting Monday night of the plans for the Mt. Prospect association's second annual Halloween party, Oct. 31.

Attractive posters have been placed in conspicuous places about the village, telling the people of the attractions. These posters, it has been noticed, are the work of a local boy, who has done a very good job in presenting the affair thru this advertising medium.

Country Club Being Used

Arrangements were completed with the officers of the Northwest Hills Country club for the use of the club house for the affair.

A party is being held by Country Club members at the club house Saturday night, Nov. 1, and the Improvement association is joining with the club members in decorating the dance floor attractively for the two evenings. The dance floor is without doubt, the best in the vicinity, and the facilities of the club house make it ideal for the party, regardless of the weather.

Undoubtedly a smaller floor would not be sufficient for the affair, which is very probable to be considered the outstanding dance of the year for Mt. Prospect.

Bargain Admission Prices

The posters show reduced rates for admittance to the affair. Couples are to be given a saving by paying a ticket for two and the burden of the charge falls on the men if they insist on the ladies buying their own tickets. Couples will be admitted for seventy-seven cents, ladies after twenty nine cents and men for forty nine cents.

This will undoubtedly be the cue for many in choosing a costume—"hard times" clothes. The fact that all kinds of costumes will be appropriate will undoubtedly bring out a colorful gathering.

The best in music has been promised and an enjoyable evening is promised for all who attend. Invitations are being extended to all residents of Mount Prospect and their friends.

"Home Came Ted"
To Farewell Party on
Mrs. Fred Folkers

Once again the members or cast of "And Home Came Ted" and also the committee had a wonderful time this time they gathered at the home of (Diana) Mrs. Otto Maleske, and the event was a farewell party for (Molly), Mrs. George Folkers, who left for their new home in Champaign, Ill. If anyone heard the remark "enough noise was made at Maleske's Friday night," well they were perfectly right, but it was all laughter and screams on the (two Ottos). My Otto, as Mrs. Maleske says, and Landeck Otto. Poor Otto Landeck was almost shocked to death by (Father) Ernst Gosh who fed him a banana a little too fast, then the poor fellow was almost killed falling from a board raised 2 inches from the floor, and My Otto we believe wasn't able to walk for the depot Saturday morning, receiving first prize in Schinker-Schlagen. My Otto was looking for the party who patted him so forcibly, but when he discovered it was (Jim) Ryker, Herman Noll, who committed the cowardly act while lying next to My Otto, he changed his mind and laughed it off as a good joke, although he ate his meals standing up.

Mr. Noll kept us entertained with music by perpetual motion. A token of remembrance was presented to Molly although she claimed she wanted the good times she enjoyed with the cast. After the many happy hours and the games played and all the singing, we all enjoyed the lunch being served. The party broke up in the wee hours with everyone wishing the Folkers Godspeed and happiness in their new home and with a promise to visit them in Champaign, Ill., in the near future.

Sanitary Market
Grand Opening
Draws Big Crowds

The new market and grocery opened by Edwin Busse last Saturday drew such a large crowd of clerks were kept quite busy throughout the day. The fresh stock of goods on the new shelves were very attractive and a full line of fresh vegetables and fruits were on display. The roomy appearance of the store appealed to the hundreds of visitors and everyone thronged the store. Two beautiful floral tributes, compliments of Fred Meeske and the Peerless Paper Co., added beauty to the well filled shelves.

There were two demonstrators from Reid-Murdoch Co., who kept the patrons busy tasting "tasty" products furnished by their company. Housewives were very enthusiastic about their buying and many of them filled their pantry shelves for future use. Mr. Busse was thrilled beyond expectation by the patronage extended him.

CLEAN-UP DAY
NOTICE

Next Thursday, October 23, is clean-up day. Put all tin cans, rubbish in containers and place on curb and they will be removed by the village. Clean up men.

Great Magician Coming Two Nights
To Be Rare Treat

The Mount Prospect Chamber of Commerce is indeed fortunate at this time as Dr. Tarbell in his show, "A Night in Magic Land," will present for the first time on any stage, the greatest of all cabinet mysteries. This is something that has not been used by any other magician, as the secret is not an old one but something that Dr. Tarbell has just worked out. At the tryout of this illusion every magician present was dumbfounded and all are still wondering how it is done.

Many of the finest effects in magic from Japan, China, Europe and America, as well as Dr. Tarbell's masterpiece, "Seeing with the Finger Tips," will be performed by Harlan Tarbell in person when he appears at Mount Prospect on October 23 and 24 under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

Many people have seen the performances of magicians, but this is different in that the public will witness the performance of a world famous teacher of magicians; who does his work in such a mysterious way as to even baffle the magicians who have been trained to observe keenly the work of others in their profession. Indeed a rare treat awaits those who attend either the nights of the 23rd or 24th at St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran school auditorium. Tickets may be had from the members of the Chamber or at Hilliard's drug store in Mt. Prospect; Sieburg's drug store, Arlington Heights; or the new Wheeling Pharmacy at Wheeling. Secure your seats in advance, as only a many tickets as is the seating capacity of the auditorium are on sale, and surely you do not want to miss this wonderful show.

Dr. Harlan Tarbell is one of the Pond Bureau of New York stellar attractions.

Railroad Films Entertain Large Crowd
at Mt. Prospect

The Mt. Prospect Improvement association, or more rather President Terping of that body, provided the entertainment Monday night at the Mt. Prospect school auditorium. Tickets may be had from the members of the Chamber or at Hilliard's drug store in Mt. Prospect; Sieburg's drug store, Arlington Heights; or the new Wheeling Pharmacy at Wheeling. Secure your seats in advance, as only a many tickets as is the seating capacity of the auditorium are on sale, and surely you do not want to miss this wonderful show.

The journey to the Provisto freight yards by means of film land was very interesting. This large yard in which many residents of this community are employed is a gigantic affair, comprising 36 tracks, a freight house covering 21 acres, and a system of switching by means of a hump and an electrical controlled retarder system. As the trainloads of cars are released at the top of the hump, the dispatcher is made aware of the final destination of each car by means of a teletype system and by pressing buttons, he not alone sends each car down the right track but controls its speed.

Variety to the program was lent by scenes in the Black Hills, which is the destination of an evening train that passes thru here every evening. The state lodge in which president Coolidge stayed was shown as well as the ex-president landing a fish.

It could not be a railroad program without a part being devoted to safety first, showing the recklessness of auto drivers who do not heed the railroad signs and signals.

MARRIED MONDAY EVENING

One of the Lauterburg and Oehler employees, Robert Rugen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rugen, Grove avenue, Des Plaines, was the groom at a wedding Monday evening performed by the Rev. O. C. A. Boeler of Immanuel Lutheran church. The bride was Miss Elsie Wright. The happy couple are making their home with the parents of the groom.

CLEAN-UP DAY
NOTICE
Next Thursday, October 23, is clean-up day. Put all tin cans, rubbish in containers and place on curb and they will be removed by the village. Clean up men.

MAYOR GETS STATE CHANGE
IN PAVEMENT*Property Owners Cooperate; It Means 56 Foot Thru Business Sec.

Through the prompt action of Mayor Herman Meyn and Alderman Budlong, the state highway department issued orders last Thursday to Milburn Bros. to construct as much as possible of the widened highway through the business section of Mt. Prospect south of the old pavement. The property owners from Wille street to the Wolf Coal & Oil Co. are understood to have expressed their willingness to pay the cost of further widening upon the north side of the old pavement, which will mean a 56 foot street and permit the parking of cars along the business frontage.

The additional right-of-way needed from the Northwestern R. R. to permit such a plan was obtained two years ago, but for some reason the state highway department was not aware of that plan and the contract awarded to Milburn Bros. called for the widening upon the north side of the old pavement. When the grading started early last week, Mr. Meyn and Mr. Budlong went to Elgin and after a conference with Mr. Lamb, the district highway engineer, the above orders were given.

It was originally planned that the village should cooperate with the state in this improvement, but objections of some property owners held the matter in abeyance until too late for a special assessment proceedings.

Mt. Prospect's front yard, with the widened highway will give a good background to train passengers for the new depot, which promises to be the most attractive along the Wisconsin division of the Northwestern. Mayor Meyn and Mr. Budlong are to be complimented for their alertness.

Veteran Buick Dealers Change Name of Firm

The home offices of Mt. Prospect branch of the firm of Wm. Busse & Son, will now be known as Busse Motor Sales. The Park Ridge branch will retain the name of Wm. Busse & Son. There is no change in the personnel of the company, the change being made necessary by the rapid growth of the business and the necessity of operating the two branches separately. Ernest Busse will still have charge of the Park Ridge establishment while Albert Busse remains in Mt. Prospect.

Ever since Buick automobiles were known in this part of Cook county, they have been sold by Busse. The increasing popularity of the car and the growth of the Park Ridge branch as well as Mt. Prospect has made the agency one of the most important outside of Chicago and the larger cities. Under the new arrangement these two firms will be better prepared than ever to serve the public with Buicks in the Buick way.

Business Depression
Does Not Interfere
With Lot Sales

"Who says there is a business depression," asked George Busse, this week when the reporter asked him how he had the nerve to start the erection of another home on Albert street in these days of real estate inactivity. The reporter has heard so much crying about hard times that the words of Mr. Busse were welcome. And here is the evidence. Mr. Busse opened a subdivision of 100 lots two years ago. Today there are only ten lots left. The last house completed by Mr. Busse is now occupied by Louis F. Hollenback, of Chicago, who is identified with the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co. The house now under construction will be of brick veneer construction and will consist of six rooms.

BILLY SWEITZER NEW ORGANIST AT POLKA'S
DES PLAINES THEATRE

Billy Sweitzer, well known organist, has been engaged as feature organist at the DesPlaines theatre and will present solos, request programs and other delightful novelties at the console of the Grand organ.

Mr. Sweitzer was previously employed at Polka Bros.' El Tovar theatre at Crystal Lake and is one of the most popular musicians in this territory.

Big Scout Public
Program and Court of Honor Wed'day

Since Mount Prospect is sending to Arlington Heights a number of Boy Scouts, Mount Prospect people should be much interested in a Court of Honor to be held in the high school Wednesday evening, October 22, at 8 p. m. A strong program has been arranged by Principal V. I. Brown of the high school and Scouts will receive awards for advancement earned.

WOODDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Nohava of Hinsdale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Culek. Mrs. Nohava is a sister of Mrs. Culek.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartz will leave Wood Dale, October 15th, for the winter. Monroe Fischer will take over the gasoline filling station.

Billy Guzmann's Ranch will have its formal opening Saturday night, October 18th. His menu will consist of such tempting dishes as hassenger, duck and chicken.

Miss Grace Schroeder celebrated her birthday last Saturday evening with a dancing party at the Women's Clubhouse in Bensenville.

Miss Hazel Hacker spent the week-end in Chicago with relatives. This was also a birthday celebration.

Louis Ihssen and his brother left Sunday night for Iowa. They made the trip by automobile.

Louis Danneier was taken ill very suddenly on Monday, and immediately removed to Elmhurst hospital where he underwent an operation. The operation was successful, and Mr. Danneier is getting along as well as can be expected.

Registration for the November election was held on Tuesday, October 14. Only three people registered. Another registration day will be held on Tuesday, October 28. In order to vote on November 4, it will be absolutely necessary for voters to register.

WOODDALE EVANGELICAL COMMUNITY CHURCH

Worship service Sunday, October 19 at 9:45 a. m. We hope to see you and your family at this service. Special music will be provided and the sermon by the undersigned.

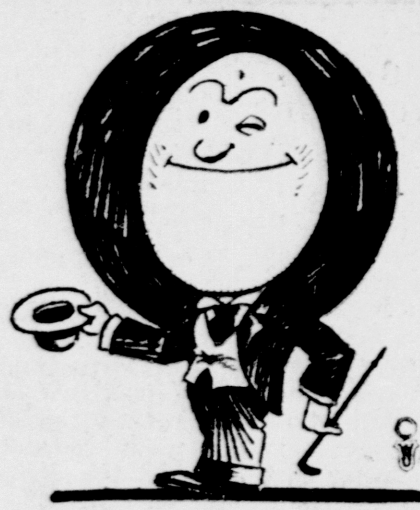

Sunday school at 10:45 this week. Are your children getting any Christian instruction? If not why not bring them to the school?

An invitation is extended to the Wooddale people to attend the meetings in the Itasca church led by the Gideons.

Walter Lauman says that twice in a man's life his hair is parted in the middle—when he is young and frivolous and when he is old and bald.

A nearly empty fountain pen is exasperating. But for that matter so is a nearly empty head.

"It must have been a consolation to Adam and Eve," asserts Warren Lee "to know that neither one of them could brag to the other about the way things were done in the good old days."

Elmer Neuman says he has often wondered what a cow thinks when she is standing quietly in a field and sees a locomotive go by with the remains of an auto draped over the cowcatcher.

The only people who believe that a lot of money is a menace are the people who haven't any.

Geo. Runge says if you can remember when rock-candy was made with a piece of twine running through it, then you are an old-timer.

"It may be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven," asserts Geo. Malkin, "but it's dead easy for him to get into the United States Senate."

Our idea of the only way to outlaw war would be to put it on a cash and carry basis.

"One of the most pitiful sights to me," says Geo. Hampton "is that of a middle-aged woman who has tried to paint what she once looked like."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of sympathy, words of consolation and the many beautiful floral pieces during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother.

Glimpses Into Scoutland

John sat at his typewriter—the gift of his parents on his fourteenth birthday. It added immensely to his den.

Oh, Johnnie! Will you go downstairs and look at the furnace for mother?" came a voice from the living room.

"Yeah—mother—just a minute." One minute—two—three slipped by.

"Johnnie!"

"Yes, mother, I'll go—"

The lad was very busy writing an essay on "Mother." Out of the idealism of his boyish heart he was haltingly piecing together word upon word. More minutes slipped by and mother looked after the furnace herself.

"Why did you do it, mother?" Johnnie asked. "You know that I'd do anything for you."

The mother only smiled and the boy went back to his den and his typewriter and his essay on "Mother."

And the mother thought to herself, when he showed her the article an hour later:

"My boy is right in his heart. He means to be a good, dutiful citizen. How can his father and I help him to carry the desires of his heart into action—into everyday living?"

The parents talked it over that night. They are going to be very careful lest they destroy the idealism itself. Perhaps, through little everyday situations that characteristic of heart may become a habit of conduct.

Series of Surprises

Life is a series of surprises, and would not be worth taking or keeping if it were not. God delights to isolate us every day, and hide us from past and future. —Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Life on Planet Mars

The telescope reveals life of some sort on the planet Mars. One can see changes of color with the Martian seasons that seem to indicate the growth and decay of vegetation of some sort.

We are sorry to report that Leonard Runge has been absent from his duties at Louman's for several days on account of illness. We hope he is feeling better by this time.

Ira Miller spent Sunday in Wood Dale with her friend, Grace Schroeder.

Little Edward Fulkerson celebrated his sixth birthday Monday after school by inviting a goodly number of his little friends to his home. They played games and a delicious lunch was served by the young man's mother.

Mrs. Bert Perry entertained friends from Chicago Tuesday afternoon.

A moderate number of Bensenville citizens saw the United States Naval Band spin thru town in a large blue and white bus Monday morning about 9:30.

Mrs. E. C. Bartholmey entertained ladies at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon. There were two tables of bridge and after an interesting game, a dainty and delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cregmiller spent the week-end at their old home in Ohio where they not only visited their many relatives, but attended a family reunion as well.

Mr. Paul Binder, brother of Max Binder, returned from a six month's visit in Germany the first of the week. He had many things to tell Max and wife about their many relatives in the Old Fatherland.

The Bensenville P. T. A. regular meeting, Oct. 9, was very well attended. The program was especially interesting and those who did not attend sure missed a lot of pleasure. The attendance was really enough to over-tax the seating capacity of the science room where the meeting was held.

The present membership of the association would not warrant asking for a larger room but if all who are interested in the public school will take an active part and assist in the wonderful work this association is capable and willing to do for the school and the community there is no doubt but a larger room can be secured for the meetings. Why not make a special effort to attend the next meeting which should be on the second Thursday in November, and help to raise the membership list to its high standard of a few years ago. The association's work is very commendable and the greater the membership the more good they can do and the better report your local association can turn in to the state association. Think it over and see if you are not missing an opportunity by absenting yourself from the association.

A number of members of Bensenville I. O. O. F. lodge went to Glen Ellyn last Monday evening to help the Glen Ellyn lodge celebrate their 75th anniversary. All report having enjoyed the evening greatly.

Judge J. G. Frey has the excavating for his new residence on N. York street done, and work on the basement will soon be completed and the carpenters at work on the building. The basement to the new residence on Pastoral avenue is now completed, and here another new home will soon be erected.

Read the full program for next week in the Center theatre's ad. this week.

Mrs. Hennessy and son, Richard, of Chicago, spent Sunday and Monday at the G. Sampson and F. Schmidt homes. There being no school in Chicago Monday, Dick was only too glad to get back and spend a couple of days with his old schoolmates.

Walter Neilson, our "Around the World" story writer, enjoyed the banquet at the Itasca Country club Tuesday evening. Walter, who is always on the lookout for material for his stories, may find some interesting things to write about close to home.

Mrs. Harold Guthrie was the hostess at a party held at her home Saturday evening. A delightful time was had by all who attended.

Have you tried Mrs. Bell's marcel, finger waves and all the rest of those touches that add to your beauty? If you haven't, you had better try them and see how wonderful they are for yourself. Once will satisfy you and then you will be a regular customer, I'm sure.

Mrs. Fenton has been busy at the high school the past week, substituting for Miss Dean.

Saturday evening there was a scene of much merriment at the Milwaukee Woman's club. Miss Grace Schroeder entertained about thirty friends from Bensenville, Chicago, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Wheaton, in honor of her birthday. Mrs. Capoot, Mrs. Hughtale and Mrs. Schroeder chaperoned the party. Dancing was the main feature of the evening and Oh Boy, did they dance. The music was furnished by one of our local radio dealers, Mr. Brumfield. A wonderful lunch was served a little before twelve and then more dancing. The young folks hated to leave the club and would gladly kept on dancing to those lovely tunes until daybreak. But instead they all departed early wishing Grace many more such happy evenings.

Miss Dean, the high school history teacher, was absent from her duties the last part of the week. Miss Dean received the sad news Tuesday noon that her sister had passed away. She left immediately for her home. The entire community extend their sincerest sympathy to Miss Dean and the rest of the grieving ones over the loss of one so dear.

Miss Betty Hill spent the week-end at the home of friends in Chicago.

Dorothy Peck and Bernice Britton entertained friends from Hinsdale lately.

Edmund Bartholmey is again master of his pony. During the summer Bud was away so the pony was taken out of town on a farm where there were other children and so it didn't have a chance to miss his master so much. But it is quite content to be back here in Bensenville.

Mrs. Wesley Western visited old friends on George and John street, last Sunday.

Al Born spent Friday evening and Saturday in Chicago visiting boy friends and girl friends. Al just said "Boy friends" but we know otherwise.

If you are fond of operatic singing, then keep the dates open from November 9, to the 23, when you may hear her sing each evening in the First Evangelical church.

Little Gordon Frye had the misfortune to break his arm a week ago while he was on his way home from Sunday school. The little lad's arm is healing and here hoping he will soon be able to use it again.

Rev. and Mrs. Osterlund attended the General Conference of the Evangelical church which convenes in the First Evangelical church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on last Monday. This conference is the highest legislative body in the Evangelical church and meets every four years.

Two Bishops, the Rev. S. C. Breyfogle, D. D. LL. D., of Reading Pa., and Rev. S. P. Spreng, D. D., of Naperville, Illinois, asked the general conference to permit them to retire on account of age.

CHURCHVILLE

Evangelical Immanuel Church at Churchville mourns the loss of one of its members.

Mr. Fred Hanebuth died Oct. 9, at West Lake hospital, and was laid to rest Saturday afternoon in Elm Lawn cemetery. Services were held in Immanuel church, Churchville, amidst a large attendance.

Mrs. Chas. Fischer, Sr., celebrated her birthday last Saturday with a group of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fischer celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Saturday evening. A large number of relatives and friends came to surprise them in the evening.

Obituary of Frederick William Hanebuth

Mr. F. Hanebuth was born Feb. 10, 1871 on a farm at North avenue and Wolf road, Proviso township, Ill. His parents were Fred Hanebuth and Henriette nee Finke. He belonged to a family of four, but of these only a sister, Mrs. Martha Schmidt survives him.

He attended parochial school at Elmhurst in the Ev. St. Peter congregation and was confirmed by Rev. Kuchen, 1884. In 1896 he married Miss Bertha Blume and occupied the farm on which he was raised. This union was blessed with two sons and one daughter who survive him, Elmer, Harvey Hanebuth, and Mrs. Evelyn Fippinger.

In Dec. 1926, he retired from the farm and moved to Maywood where he occupied a comfortable home. Over a year ago an ailment began to take hold of him which was very painful, and no medical aid seemed to bring improvement in his condition. Sept. 19, he submitted to an operation which brought considerable relief, and as the cause of the ailment seemed to have been located a complete recovery seemed possible. But complications set in which brought about an early demise. He died peacefully Thursday, Oct. 9, at 1:19 a. m. in the presence of his family. He was ready and willing to go and had made all necessary preparations.

There remain to mourn their loss, Mrs. Hanebuth his widowed wife, his two sons, Elmer and Harvey Hanebuth, his daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Fippinger, his sister, Mrs. Herman Schmidt, five grandchildren, brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, cousins, nephews, and nieces.

Mr. Hanebuth was a kind and faithful husband and father, a hardworking farmer, a helpful neighbor, a congenial friend, and a devout Christian.

APPRECIATION

We wish to publicly announce our appreciation to the business men of Bensenville for the action recently taken by them in the closing of their places of business on the Sabbath day thereby giving themselves and others a great opportunity to attend divine worship. May they and the community at large be greatly benefited by their action. Rev. H. J. Osterlund and Rev. H. Wagner.

HOLLYWOOD HAS

"GONE TALKIE"

The silent drama has gone "talkie." To what extent Hollywood has fallen for the dialogue pictures that have revolutionized the motion picture industry can be judged by the production schedules at the Hollywood studios. Where a year or two years ago the talkies were an experiment, today more than 85 per cent of the pictures being made at the film center are sound or dialogue pictures.

The best of these will soon be shown at the Center theatre, which installed a Western Electric Sound System for reproducing sound and dialogue films.

Just as she hurried past.

Robbed at her Own Door! We have scanned the pages of the press in search for a hint at the real secret of this presumptuous attack. If you won't breathe it to a soul, we'll share our tip with you. We have it from confidential sources that this villainous outrage was perpetrated by emissaries of King George of Old England, oppressor of the American colonies. We understand that detectives at Big Bill's suggestion are searching for marks of horses' hoofs, on the theory that the Prince of Wales himself rode over and directed the attack. No traces of any one falling from his steed have yet been unearthed by the sleuths, but they are at work with their microscopes and may turn up something beside turf yet.

Speaking of princes, the holler that Hizzoner emitted nearly qualifies him for the title of Prince of Salts.

Yes: I'm forty-five today—built like a race horse, my friends say—and I know I feel 10 years younger than I did three months ago—and I'd hate to tell you how much fat I lost with Kruschen.

I call Kruschen Salts the "magic salts" because when I was fat and wretched, dependent and half sick all the time—it took only one bottle that I bought for 85 cents at Schroeder's Pharmacy, Palatine, Illinois, to live me up—put ambition and energy into me—make me feel years younger and with the help of a change in diet show me how to lose the fat I was so addicted to.

Get out pastries and desserts—
go easy on potatoes, cream, cheese,
and butter—eat lean meat, chicken, fish, vegetables and fruits and never fail to take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

Every drug store worthy of the name in the World sells Kruschen Salts—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—not much to pay for buoyant health.

or the news that a few instances of naughty crime have been seen in the city over which he more or less presides. Maybe he will begin to read some of the papers, to see if there is anything to these rumors of petty malefactions.

Big Bill seems to have been a reader of McGuffey's Fifth Reader.
At least Palatine Pete says Bill looked up from reading the story of "Circumstances alter Cases," the Fable of the Ox that was Gored, and when he heard his wife's story, Bigbill reached for the telephone and called the chief of police, saying something like,
"It makes a difference whose skirt is gored!" or something like that.

The Judiciary Committee of the Chicago Bar Association and the Executive Committee of the Chicago Crooks Protective League seem to have the same idea that "Judge Lyle should not be re-elected!" Well, maybe the Judge hasn't enough judicial temperament. We dunno, but he looks kinda good from where we sit.
Judicial temperament, according to the Bar Association, seems to mean that a judge should be so neutral that he doesn't care who soaks it to the average person.

As Hot Stove Jimmy Quinn said to Mayor Harrison, "The sentiment is for you but the sentiment is agin you." Whether the sentiment will out-vote the sentiment for Judge Lyle remains to be seen. Judicial or not, we'd feel easier in our sleep if Judge Lyle was where he could say his piece to the gangsters.

At the fraternity house the other day one of the freshmen was told to take the telephone book and sing to any tune he cared to choose all the names listed under the letter S. We never knew before where the popular song writers got their lines.

Looking over the list of appointments of the Rock River Conference we saw the following: The neither appears to be suffering pain, W. W. Ake is a near neighbor of E. J. Aiken. Charles and
A. J. Bishop are plain preachers, without episcopal pretensions. R.
E. Bond isn't in that kind of business, except matrimonial bonds.
And so on, proving that there is or else there isn't, something in a name.

We read also of a certain Chicago housewife who is on trial in that city who says that she can't for the life of her husband shooting her beloved hubby about three months ago. We just know how it is, sister. Personally we always jut down little interesting trivial occurrences 'cause you never CAN tell when you may forget 'em.

After reading the 'steenth item in the bill of particulars cited against the Rev. Bishop Cannon of the Southern Methodist Church we are somewhat inclined to the belief that this Cannon is being overcharged.

We know puns are in questionable taste, but what would you say if you knew a girl named Delilah Liptrop? If you managed to resist that temptation to perpetrate a pun, could you resist if you knew that she lived on a farm next

Around the World Tours in Chicago

Walter C. Nielsen

SWEDEN, JAPAN AND TURKEY

A good way to learn something about "old country" people, would be to eat a meal in a typical foreign restaurant.

"A Bit of Sweden" is the name of a restaurant located on the near north side of Chicago. This eating place is distinctly Swedish throughout, from the furniture and tapeters to the draperies and tapestries. In each of the two dining rooms is a large, decorated fireplace, entirely different from the fireplaces to which we are accustomed, surrounded by old Swedish cooking utensils. The tables are walnut and are ablaze in shape with wall benches replacing the usual chairs. The silverware and dishes are imported from Sweden, as are also the contrast lighting fixtures and the candlesticks which decorate and light each table.

In the center of each dining room will be found a large table of appetizers, sometimes as many as twenty-five large platters heaping with these Swedish delicacies.
It is customary in Sweden to have these appetizers before the regular dinner.

"Cafe Old Stamboul" represents an interesting bit of life of the East. Admittance to this Turkish restaurant is gained by ringing a doorbell. Andre Bowie, big, swarthy-skinned, mustache manager, admits you and escorts you up a dark stairway heavily carpeted with Oriental rugs, with the walls and ceilings hidden by Persian tapestries and hangings.

Food is served on tables about a foot high, with large cushions serving as chairs. In the main dining room we find the ceiling painted to represent the starry sky, with fixtures designed as moon, sun, evening star, the dipper, and other well known constellations. In the center of this room is a large finely engraved brass Persian lantern, which, due to its age, is valued at more than a thousand dollars.
There are many alcoves and semi-private dining rooms, all of which are decorated in harmony with the main furnishings.

If you want a taste of real Occidentalism here you can find it.
Japanese Eating House. Located in the center of a small Japanese colony in Chicago we find a restaurant quite different from anything we have ever experienced in our tours about Chicago. The Japanese meal is prepared before your eyes. In the center of the table is a small gas plate. The food to be prepared is placed on a large platter and brought in so as to give you the opportunity to see it before it is prepared.

A typical meal is prepared in the following manner: After the fire has been lighted under the skillet, a large piece of suet is placed in it, and after this has been fried down, the meat, which is cut very thin, is added. A few spoonfuls of sugar are sprinkled over the meat, which is then partially covered with shoyu sauce. When the meat has been browned the rest of the food, Japanese mushrooms, green onions, dry onions, bamboo, and more sauce, is added to the pan. After all this has simmered about ten minutes it is ready to be served. Rice and tea complete the meal.

RECEIVES AN AWARD FOR BEST LAWN

Herman Beisner Wins $75
In Big Tribune
Competition

Does Roselle have pretty lawns?
Mr. Herman Beisner says, yes.
Yesterday he received a check from the Chicago Tribune for $75 and a certificate of award certifying that his lawn had won 4th place in the Tribune's 1930 Home Lawn
competition.

Cash prizes amounting to $5,000 were distributed among 195 winners. First prize drew $250. Chas.
Mock, Jr. of Elgin won sixth, $35,
and Dr. A. B. Crothers of Elgin seventh, $20.

The contest was announced in May and was entered by Mr. Beisner in June. The Tribune committee which made an inspection of the lawn appraised the condition of the grass and the design and layout as a hundred percent perfect. The only defect in the Beisner lawn which happened to be considered a very material one was the condition of the tree bank in front. This Mr. Beisner points out lost him a good chance for 1st place. The tree bank cannot be improved until the widening of the pavement which is contemplated in the future is completed.

The Beisner lawn is located on the east side of Roselle road toward Bloomingdale across from the Boehme greenhouses.

Landmeiers Celebrate Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Land-meier of Bensenville, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, Oct. 11, at the Landmeier home.

With the home decorated suitable to the occasion, Rev. H. L. Barth of St. John's Evangelical church read a short and impressive ceremony. Standing with the honored couple were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wischstadt and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kable, all of whom witnessed the ceremony of twenty-five years ago. The children, Mr. and Mrs.
Ewald E. Lang, of Elmhurst and Hilda and Walter Landmeier also took part in the ceremony. The bride was very fortunate in having her aged father, Mr. John Koebelman, present.

After the ceremony a chicken dinner was served to about 100 guests. The evening was spent in singing and dancing and various forms of entertainment furnished by the guests. At midnight ice-cream and cake were served and the guests departed in the wee hours of the morning wishing Mr.
and Mrs. Landmeier many more years of marital bliss.

HENRY CLAUSING PASSES AWAY

Mr. Henry Clausing died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Spring, in Schaumburg, Saturday, October 11th, 1930, following an illness of less than a week caused by a stroke
Mr. Clausing was eighty nine years old. He was the husband of the late Mrs. Hermine Clausing, who preceded him in death.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from St. Peter's Lutheran church, Schaumburg, the Rev.
Theis officiating.

The deceased is survived by an only living sister, Mrs. F. Albrecht and the following children: Mrs.
Gustav Spring, Mrs. Henry Engel-king, Mrs. Henry Moehling, Mrs.
Henry Meyer, Mrs. Carl Reinke,
Mrs. Aug. Hattendorf, Mrs. Henry Clausing, daughter in law, and William, Herman, Fred and John Clausing.

Dzur and Karstens were in charge of funeral and floral arrangements.

HOLD FESTIVITIES FOR BIRTHDAYS

Friday evening was a merry and happy occasion at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. Edward Nerge, when they celebrated the 39th birthday of Mr.
Nerge and the 11th birthday of their son, Robert Lee.

The evening was spent in playing "500" and pinocle by the older folks and games by the children.
Their guests were Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Nerge and family of Palatine; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Glade nad family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Geske, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berlin of Schaumburg; Mr. and Mrs. Pfingsten and family of Lyons; Mr. and Mrs. Dzur, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sunderlage and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thorsell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Geske, Jr., and family of Roselle.
Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Their guests departed at a late hour wishing both Ed and Bobbie many more happy birthdays.

BENSENVILLE NEXT FOR BRAVES

The champion Roselle Braves will attempt to extend their domain next Sunday when they meet the strong Bensenville team at Bensenville. The Braves have won ten out of their last twelve games and are in a winning stride. They expect, however, stiff opposition
Sunday.

Manager Bill Bigelow, who will lead the Braves in this battle played with Bensenville back in 1910, before prohibition and etc., and expects to slip one across on the old folks to the tune of "When You and I Were Young Maggie."

Fans, lest we forget,
All roads lead to Bensenville
Sunday.

The Womans Club Educational Program

The Woman's club met Wednesday, October 15, Mrs. W. J. Hausman leading the program after the regular business of the session. This consisted of secretary's report, given from last meeting by Mrs. Kaul Peeter, the secretary; treasurer's report given by Mrs. Schuett; also reading of letters received by Mrs. Jarvis, correspondence secretary. These, in her absence, were read by Mrs. Whitmore, the president.

The president then called for reports from those who attended the Seventh District meeting at Des Moines. Not all present, Mrs. FitzPatrick said while the women of interest, that which impressed her most was Mrs. Elrod's address on "Women in Jury Service." Mrs. J. E. Best spoke of her pleasure in the whole meeting and especially was she interested in the talk of the assistant superintendent of the Chicago schools. Especially the practical and helpful work carried on in the night schools, in which grandmothers, mothers, and daughters—women who toil—are being helpfully taught.

Mrs. Isabel Cuny Oefelein then called to the piano, where she gave two numbers from Coplin, bringing out a beauty of tone and melody which seemed almost impossible from the piano to an assistant encore. She skillfully played a left, or one hand number that should encourage piano players whose right hand has been rendered useless.

Mrs. Hausman then took the chair and after a few humorous explanations, gave her treatment of an unusual subject, "Are Parents Appreciated?" A lively diversified and in many points helpfully suggestive talk, with much humor and much of open questioning. Altogether interesting and heartily enjoyed by the audience.

Mrs. Chapman, one of the honored one time members of the club, was present, and invited to tell us something of her latest trip to Europe from which she has just returned. This Mrs. Chapman kindly responded to in a few minutes talk. She mentioned the places where soldier's bodies rest in France. She spoke of their visit to Switzerland and the Passion Play, they so thrillingly enjoyed at Oberammergau.

ed in memory as beyond anything ever imagined or witnessed. One incident Mrs. Chapman told about was her visit to the grave of "The Unknown Soldier" in France on which she laid a wreath in the name of the Woman's club of Arlington Heights. A pretty gesture on her part and one to be sincerely appreciated by this, her home club.

Mrs. Zander, on behalf of the entertainment committee called to mind the urge to procure tickets for the Gustaf Nibel party, October 29; tickets to be purchased before the 22nd, so the chef may know how many to provide for. She said some had the impression this guest night was to be a formal affair. She said not so, it is simply to take the place of a club social evening with a change of scenery, as a refreshment to the committee. Get your tickets and enjoy a get-away guest night party. See Mrs. Hertel and Mrs. Wichner in regard to transportation.

Flints for the Home

Stuffed Tomatoes—Stuffed tomatoes and peppers offer other chances for vegetable combinations that are delicious. Here is one that is unusual—and it calls for the addition of nuts, so really doesn't belong here. But it is very good. Mash potatoes and season them well. Then add coarsely broken pecan meats—half the quantity—to the potato. With this mixture stuff tomatoes from which centers have been removed. Bake, basting with butter and hot water, until tender and brown.

Green peas and rice and celery—diced and boiled, and the peas should be boiled, too—make a good tomato filling. Or string beans, bread crumbs, shredded green pepper and onion.

Tomato, celery, and onion, with rice or bread crumbs to give consistency, make a good filling for stuffed green peppers. Or you may use rice, onion, celery and asparagus.

BOOSTING THE APPLE
It appears now that the apple men of the country are waking up. They have seen the orange and melon growers organize for mutual benefit, and they have seen them market their production every year at a good profit. They have learned that it has been chiefly due to cooperation and advertising. Now they are organizing. An association of orchardists in the United States and Canada has recently been formed and its officers are out with a statement that they are raising a fund of $1,000,000 to be spent in advertising. This advertising will make known the virtues of the apple for canning and preserving, and as a promoter of health. They propose, in a word to make the American people eat more apples and use them in more varied ways. They are not to be able to make everybody believe that "an apple a day keeps the doctor away," but they are going to make more money for themselves and build up a permanent market for their products. If $1,000,000 to be spent in advertising won't do it, nothing else on earth will.

U. Wade. Lake Mills is located near Algona, Iowa.

High School Youth Gets Thirty Days Away From School

Judge O. A. Schroeder of Palatine found a new kind of a sentence for reckless young drivers last Saturday when he placed a fine of $25 and costs against a Palatine high school boy who had been nabbed going 32 miles an hour on a street thronged with school children and whizzing around a corner at reckless speed while two youngsters were crossing the street. But after the judge had named the fine he pulled a new one when he announced to the offending youth and his father that he was willing to hold the fine in obedience for thirty days provided that the youth would agree to keep away from the steering wheel of his auto for that length of time. The agreement was made and if the youngster lives up to it he will escape the fine. If he doesn't live up to it the fine and costs are payable at once.

This form of sentence should have a wholesome effect on the carelessness of youthful drivers. For it means that banishment from their car will follow any reckless driving and where an offender happens to live a few miles from school as in the case of the last of the youngsters, it means a form of punishment that really means more than a fine.

Officer Kable and the entire police department are doing all in their power to protect the children of Palatine and he is not an officer who makes arrests without good cause. Knowing this, Judge Schroeder did not hesitate for a moment in dealing out drastic punishment when a reckless youth was brought before him, and the judge and the police hope that this thirty day sentence away from an auto wheel will have a beneficial effect on all youthful drivers who have a tendency to speed up or get careless with their cars.

BENSENVILLE DIVIDED INTO TWO PRECTS.

Voters are Urged to Have Names on Registration List of Own Precinct

The voting population of Bensenville has increased until it has been found necessary to divide the village into two voting precincts. York street is the dividing line and all residing on the west side of York street will vote at the village hall while those residing on the east side of York street will find their voting booths located in the H. L. Geils Sons office opposite the village hall. Last Tuesday was registration day and duly appointed clerks were at both places to take care of the registration of voters names. Heretofore it has been possible to transfer the names of parties who have voted the preceding election, and who still remained here, to the new books. But this year on account of the division of the village into the two precincts every voter is asked to make sure that his name is on the list. Tuesday, October 28th, will be another day when all can register at their voting place. Make sure your name is on the list and save much time and annoyance on election day for if your name is not on the list it will be necessary to have your vote sworn in and all this can be eliminated by simply making sure you are registered.

CONFESSIONS OF A HOOSIER

As the song has it: "The old man ain't what he used to be." The first political campaign I clearly remember was a "Free Silver" campaign of 1896. And what a campaign it was. Big white badges or big yellow badges on everybody. Battles between yellow badge youngsters and white badge youngsters whenever the twain should meet. Enormous pictures of Bill Bryan or Bill McKinley in the windows of every house. Miles of torch processions with plenty of red light to give a lurid aspect to the unending columns. (Fortunately, in our country seat at Le Roy, Republican and Democratic torch light processions were never held on the same night. If they had been, blood would have been spilt.) What pitiful exhibitions of depravity I regarded those Democratic processions as being. How criminal, apparently, did the misguided Bryanites think our glorious processions were! What rallies there were with exhortations and waving of arms and cheers and sandwiches and lemonade! For two months little was thought of except the great McKinley or the devilish Bryan (or the reverse). It was a campaign of the imagination and his enthusiasm.

I doubt if it did much more than stir the imagination and the enthusiasm even of the grown-ups. There probably was little real thinking in that campaign. It was like a war in which the soldiers at the front have little time to consider the issues involved. I believe our campaigns today are better than that one was. Our newspapers have larger circulations and are better edited; our magazines are more numerous and are more widely read; our radios bring to us the voices of those seeking election and do so in the quietness of our own homes. Red fire is not used. The appeal is more to the intellects of people and less to their emotions. Many persons, it is true, do not exercise their right of voting, but if an individual can be led to vote only by a grotesque campaign worthy of a savage tribe in Africa, it is certain that his vote will not be an intelligent one anyhow, and if he stays away from the polls, we are so much the better. The amount of information and intelligence shown by a vote actually cast today is probably greater than ever before.

But we have a long way to go. Our newspapers are better than formerly but they still fail to give us all the information that we should have. Our radio speeches for the most part leave out the savage invectives of 1896 but they are far from being philosophical. As a people, we must think more and depend upon our emotions less (proper emotions are good things but they should be our servants rather than our masters). Napoleon said that an army moves forward upon its stomach. A republic, if it is to move forward at all, must move upon its head. Unless the people consider fundamental questions, there can be only a sham republic or else an open dictatorship, as in Italy or Russia.

Many persons are discouraged about the political aspects of the present and these aspects are certainly far from what they should be. When I look back, however, at the tawdry Free Silver campaign of 1896, I am filled with hope. I am sure that the American people in political acumen, are moving forward. Let's hit up the pace! Let's spike the guns of every political candidate that dares insult by giving us invective rather than reason.

Job Was Done

A grammar school student was set a question in an examination paper—"If twenty men reap a field in eight hours, how long will it take fifteen men to reap the same field?" The student thought long and carefully before writing the answer, and when he handed in his paper, this is what the examiner read: "The field having been reaped by the twenty men could not be reaped by the fifteen."—Toronto Globe.

Kappa Beta Gammas Enjoy Slumber Party

When nights turn out too cold, and mornings too wet, plans for an overnight hike to the woods have to be abandoned or slightly changed. The latter idea proved most appealing to members of the Kappa Beta Gamma club, and so Saturday evening found them congregated at the home of Nora Schering.

The change, making it an indoor instead of an outdoor affair did not dampen the spirit of fun and in fact indulged in by the girls about two hours were spent in playing "Ping Pong" and the fact that most of those present had never played the game before, made it all the more funny and entertaining.

Fortune telling, with a little crystal ball, gave the girls ideas both happy and sad, as to what they had to expect in the future. Later that inevitably hilarious game of "Pit" was brought out, and everyone played with a great deal of noise, and an utter lack of dignity; the result being several hoarse and wheezy voices.

Refreshments being the "highlight" of all gatherings, "Kerrigan Goulash," having been ordered by everyone, was set out, and in spite of the lateness of the hour, appetites were thoroughly if a trifle uncomfortably appeased. It must be said, however, that the girls were not selfish, the apple was cheerfully shared with "visitors" who were furnished. As a climax to the evening, all adjourned to a darkened room where a moving picture machine was the means of amusement. A film taken of the club members about three years ago was shown and brought forth much laughter, and remarks from all corners of the room were: "Oh lookit my hair, wasn't it funny?" "And I still have that old dress on!" "Gosh, weren't we a funn; looking bunch?" etc.

Yawns and sighs of exhaustion were by now plainly audible, and preparations for bed were made amid remarks passed thru open doors and much giggling. No one seemed to regret that she wasn't lying out in the woods on a bed of leaves and blankets with the starry sky much in evidence over her head.

Sunday morning dawned clear and bright on seven girls who were thankful for their comfortable warm beds.

The Kappa Beta Gammas were entertained by Miss Vernet Schroeder at her home last Friday evening.

Decorations of autumn leaves, red corn, ghosts and dim lights gave the attic, where the girls played bridge, a festive and Halloween air, as well as did the refreshments and spirit of the evening. Nor Schering received the prize for high score, funny little "Jack-o-Lantern" by Miss Anne Stacker.

Miss Annie Schering, who had dinner and stayed overnight with Vernet and helped make the evening a very delightful one.

P.T.A. ENJOYS PROGRAM AT MEETING

Camp Fire Girls Feature In Exhilarating Drama

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, was held at the public school Tuesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. A. Peterson, after which all stood and sang "America." The secretary's minutes were read and approved. The amount of $55.72 was reported by the treasurer and the chairman of the refreshment committee reported a balance of $53.33. Motion was made and carried that $5.00 be spent for kitchen utensils.

Mr. Followell, reported that the school was badly in need of a new encyclopedia and a number of other books. Ways and means to raise money to purchase these books were then discussed. No definite plans were made, so it was carried over until the next meeting.

The president reported the P. T. A. conference would be held at Joliet Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Miss Followell's rooms had the largest attendance of parents. Mrs. Alsthaugh of Glen Elly gave a very interesting talk on extension library.

No further business the meeting was closed. The chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Edwara Pohlman, with the aid of Mrs. Wallace Womeldorf, had prepared a very interesting program.

A health playette by the Camp Fire girls—Eleanor Boehm, taking the part of the judge, and Betty Sawyer as Basiff. The following prisoners were tried: Louise Coor, who had been reading in a dark room; Roberta Peterson for wearing small shoes and high heels; Betty Dillon for sleeping with windows closed; Virginia Ross, underweight and Lucile Koff for neglect. Dorothy Volharding, Marie Peterson, Marion Wolf and Margaret Crandall were other prisoners. Mary LeRoy acted as pianist. The prisoners were each given a lecture by the acting judge and court was dismissed. Meriam Peterson then read an article on health, after which the Camp Fire girls sang "Mammy Moon."

Business Men Meet Candidate for Auditor At Itasca Country Club

A number of the business men of Bensenville, Itasca, Wood Dale and Roselle, were guests at the Itasca Country club Tuesday evening to a roast duck dinner. Elmer Franzen acted as toastmaster and following the repast introduced Lay Van Getson, of Wheaton, who is a candidate for auditor, as a likeable young man, who, on account of his long experience and careful study of the accounting business, had decided to place his name on the ballot as a candidate for county auditor.

The growth of DuPage county in population makes necessary the filling of four additional offices, probate judge, probate clerk, auditor and recorder. There are five tickets in the field, the candidates are: in the field, the candidates are: members of the same political party, but who are required in this instance to appear under "coined" party appellations. The group of which Mr. Getson is a member is the Peoples Party. His associates are W. B. Friedrich, candidate for probate judge; Robt. A. Peet, candidate for probate clerk; and A. P. Vilson, of Elmhurst, candidate for recorder.

Mr. Van Getson, a stranger to the majority of those present, took an opportunity of giving an account of his education and activities in accounting. He has been employed by and with some of the most prominent accountants in the country today. He believes that is past experience along that line qualifies him for the duties of the office of County Auditor. After hearing read "The Duties of a County Auditor," as laid down by the legislature, those present appeared to be of the opinion that this office was by far more important than they had formerly been led to believe.

Every county office has its own distinct, important duties to be performed and each calls for a different line of training. While DuPage county has never before elected a county auditor, the opinion expressed by those present at this meeting was that an experienced and trained accountant should prove a most efficient county auditor. All present expressed with the opportunity of meeting Mr. Van Getson and to hear him so well spoken of by those who had known him in business and social way.

Among those present were Leonard Geils, Carl Kirchhoff, Chester Franzen, and G. E. Franzen of Bensenville; Walt Nielsen, of Wood Dale; Dr. Schindler, Dr. Kitzmuller, H. Benhardt, Elmer Franzen, Itasca; C. Peterson, H. O. Holland and Geo. A. Sims, of Roselle.

FICTITIOUS PLATES BRING FINE OF $25

After a check-up which showed him to be driving his car with fictitious license plates, Joe Huber of Chicago was fined $25 in the local city court last Saturday.

Huber with a friend was found driving about the vicinity of Meadville at night and was taken to custody upon suspicion. Investigations revealed that Huber owned two cars, which he was driving with one set of license plates, he plates with which he was driving were taken out for the other car.

Written by Plutarch
"He calls a spade a spade," is one of the longest-lived remarks on record. It goes back to Plutarch, who 1,900 years ago wrote: "These Jacobinians are a rude and clownish people, that call a spade a spade." And the same ancient biographer is responsible for that descriptive phrase, "he has one foot in the grave."—Golden Book Magazine.

Named by St. Paul
St. Paul gave the name "The Lord's Supper" to the commemorative ordinance instituted by Christ upon the evening preceding his crucifixion.

VALLEY O.E.S. MET AT PARK LAST SUNDAY

Matrons and Patrons from Many Towns Gather At Roselle

Sunday, Oct. 12, the Fox River Valley Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of the Order of the Eastern Star, with their families were guests of Mrs. E. H. Crandall, worthy matron and Mr. Frank Wind, worthy patron of Rosedale chapter at the Rosebud Park, Roselle.

A very delicious chicken dinner and other good eats that goes with the chicken was served their guests at 1 p. m. The afternoon was spent in playing games and enjoying the Braves and Cardinals ball game.

Matrons and patrons from the following chapters attended: Bensenville, Glen Ellyn, Henrietta, West Chicago, Geneva, Alamo and Rising Sun from Aurora, St. Charles, Oswego, Elburn, DeKalb, Bethel, Elgin, Plainfield and Naperville.

Mrs. Wm. Krueger and Mrs. A. C. Roloff, past worthy matrons and Mr. E. H. Crandall, worthy patron of Rosedale chapter, were also their guests. All reported a wonderful time.

The next regular meeting of Rosedale chapter, Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, has been set aside as Friends' night. All members of the O. E. S. are cordially invited to attend.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 29, Rosedale chapter will hold a penny bazaar at the Biographical Masonic hall. Everybody is invited to attend this bazaar.

Cleaners and Dyers' Machinery Installed; Running Full Blast

The Bensenville Cleaners and Dyers, which opened up last month, started off with an extra run of business, are now able to do all their work in their own shop here. Before the installation of the machinery and the connecting up of the gas and electricity, the new business place were forced to get some of their work done elsewhere. But this week found everything in readiness and work being turned out much more quickly. And the washing, cleaning and dying shop, with its humming machinery, is a busy place and all hands are kept busily engaged taking care of the fast growing business that is coming in.

Bensenville and community are congratulating the boys for their venture into the business world and every one predicts for them a steady growing business. Their machinery is all the latest improved and they were long sighted enough to install machinery large enough to accommodate a very much increased business. The present machinery has a capacity that will accommodate the business from a city of several thousand population. The boys report that since they started, their business has increased each week until it has become necessary to employ more help. And to make it still better, they have not as yet received a single complaint about the work they have turned out.

Dogs Trained to Lead Blind
The school for the blind where German shepherd dogs are used as guides is on the outskirts of Lausanne, Switzerland. It is called "L'oeil qui Voit." Mrs. Dorothy Harrison Eustis was an English girl who, as an adult, has been interested in this humanitarian work while engaged in breeding and training shepherd dogs for police duty.

Center Theatre Showing to Packed Houses

Lovers of good talking pictures who reside anywhere within driving distance of Bensenville are showing their appreciation for the shows that are being put on at the Center theatre.

With the very best Western Electric sound machine installed and nothing but the latest in pictures being shown, the management are being showered with compliments from day to day. These compliments are fully appreciated by the manager, Mr. Irwin, and he still insists that his chief desire is to give Bensenville and surrounding community all the latest pictures as fast as they are released.

By watching the Center theatre ad, each week in the Register you are sure to keep posted on just what shows are coming and select the ones you have been waiting to see. You will be able to see them at the Center theatre just as soon as they are released, so no use looking further, when you know that no sound machine made or installed anywhere is any better than the one here at home.

Crane and Engineering Company Make Valuable Discovery in Heaters

Last week, Mr. Weigle, manager of the Crane and Engineering company, located at Bensenville, decided that the oil burner used in his garage heater could be made still more useful.

He took the cabinet heating stove from the Walter Olhaber stove and converted it into an oil burner. While the weather has not been really cold enough for a large amount of heat to be turned on, the stove is placed in Mr. Olhaber's store now and has been tried to the perfect satisfaction of the merchant. He is very much enthused over the idea and is sure it will give him all the heat he needs for his store and no ashes to carry out or no way changes the appearance of the stove.

And Mr. Weigle also believes that with his garage stove placed in the majority of garages in and around Bensenville this winter, there will be little or no complaint of cars freezing up. And they cost so little to install and maintain. A visit to the factory is invited by Mr. Weigle.

American National Party Asks Support of DuPage Voters

The attention of the Tax Payers of DuPage County is being called to the candidacy of five candidates for county offices on a new ticket, known as the American National party.

The five candidates are: Eben H. Jayne, Elmhurst, for Probate Judge; Carl R. Birkholz, Lombard, for Probate Clerk; Walter F. Schneider, Elmhurst, for County Clerk; Glen W. Swihart, Lombard, for County Auditor; Harry Linsey, Lombard, for County Recorder.

The candidates on this ticket are not Dyed In The Wool Politicians and did not aspire to these offices, but were nominated by a representative group of Tax Payers of DuPage county. They are men of unquestionable integrity and can give an efficient courteous administration which is most desired of our Public Servants.

"Plan Your Vote to Save Taxes" seems to be the by-word of Tax Payers these Pre-Election days.

CARDS LOSE FINAL GAME AND SERIES

Third Inning At Wins; Biesterfeldt Allows But One Hit

The Braves are Champions of Roselle. Their defeat of the Cards Sunday afternoon gave them two of the three Roselle series games.

Second Game
Braves 2
Cards 0
Third Game
Cards 1

The Cards were helpless before Biesterfeldt's speed and curves, being held to a single hit all afternoon, a single by Scharlau. During the entire series the Cards collected but ten hits off his delivery, and suffered forty-two strikeouts.

In Sunday's game Knaak was touched for seven hits which with eleven in the two previous games made eighteen off him for the series. He is credited with twenty-three strikeouts.

Of the four runs scored by the Cards for the series, one was earned, one by Scharlau, scored by the Braves, seven were earned. For the series Knaak issued five free passes and Biesterfeldt tried. In the field the Cards excell, they handled fifty-eight chances with three errors. The Braves handled thirty-eight chances with five errors.

Third Wins Series.
The turning point in Sunday's game came in the third inning when the Braves opened a batting attack which netted them three runs. Haberkamp scored the inning with a single and stole second. Feuerhaken followed with a double to right, scoring Haberkamp. Knaak became unsteady and walked Young and Thurnau filling the bases. Richter hit a grounder between third and second which Hattendorf fielded fast enough to get Feuerhaken off the plate on a force play. Biesterfeldt was hit by a pitched ball forcing in Young. Schmidt singled to left and Thurnau scored the third run of the inning for the Braves. Scharlau made a great catch of Sauermaun's foul fly and Bigelow grounded out to end the inning, which gave the game and series to the Braves.

The Braves added another in the fifth when Biesterfeldt was hit by a pitched ball and scored on a single to center by Sauerman. The lone Card score came in the ninth inning when Kruse was hit by a pitched ball, reached second on a wild pitch, stole third and came in when Young fumbled A. Siems grounder.

BOWLING ANNOUNCEMENT

The Mt. Prospect Recreation will give $5.00 in cash each week to anyone bowling the secret score, except in case of tie, which must be rolled off. Seal broken Sunday, 9 p. m. Bowler must be present to collect. Last week score, 139 won by Mr. Wm. Harnock.

The Monday night business men's bowling league is going ahead real nice. There were two upsets that weren't expected. For instance, the Electrics lost 3 to the Hardware; the Garages lost 3 to the Barbers, but Meeske's came through as expected and took 3 from the Bankers. Next week we expect to see quite a battle on alleys one and two when the Barbers take on Meeske's. Watch out for an upset on 5 and 6 where the Garages will do their stuff against the Electrics. Laugh at "Hard Times"
At Gay Party Staged
By Ladies of Church

The Women's Circle of the Community church gave a hard time party last Friday night in the basement of the public school for the members, their husbands and friends.

About a hundred people attended the party and they were all in costume, save three (busy business men who came directly from business) and the costumes were very indicative of a period of depression, although from the hilarity and goodfellowship displayed the costumes did not represent the mental attitude of those who attended.

There were tramps, scarecrows, one scarecrow carrying a cane, some very charming costumes of long ago, and one entire family who could not be mistaken for anything but people fresh from the wide open prairies, (probably from somewhere in Minnesota).

The evening was passed playing old fashioned games and it was an evening's entertainment in itself to see Deacon Jonas wrap his arms around Eve when he was portraying Adam wandering blindfolded looking for his companion. When he found her he certainly grasped her firmly.

While playing "Poor-House" Mr. Zirkelbach and Mrs. Bacon proved that once they took hold of something they could hang onto it.

In the game "Going to Jerusalem on Musical Chairs," Mr. Roland Dahlstrom proved himself very agile and for his efforts was given a very choice vegetable.

Mrs. Jonas, Mr. M. Jones, Wendell Andresen, Mr. Pierce, Mrs. Gehring, and others received prizes for stunts and other games. Once again the women have proven that they can provide a very enjoyable party and they are to be congratulated on their success.

Seven Indicted For Driving While Intoxicated

The grand jury which met at Wheaton last week handed in 27 indictments, naming thirty persons seven of which are charged with driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

After its inspection of the county jail and court house the grand jury made recommendations for a new jail because of bad housing conditions and a new court house because of crowded conditions.

Spartans Succumb to Glenview Attack to 6-0

With the second quarter just under way, Coach Brown of Glenview sent in his star half back and leading scorer of last year's team "Go" Stickrath. On the first play of the second quarter "Go" took the ball on a wide end run and ran 20 yards untouched across the goal line for a touchdown and the only score of the game.

Glenview kicked off to start the game and held the Spartans on ground plays but two passes gave the Spartans a first down. Glenview again held and the Spartans punted to Bohannon who made a brilliant return only to fumble and the Spartans recovered the ball. The Glenview line again showed its strength and held and forced the opponents to punt. This time Bohannon made the most spectacular play of the game when he returned the punt a good 45 yards through the broken field to the fifty yard line.

With "Bubbles" Tuttle, "Tony" Borre and "Billy" Bohannon carrying the ball the Orange and Blue pressed onward toward the Spartan goal. With the ball on the visitors' 20 yard line the quarter ended. Then the aforementioned play took place to give the locals the only score of the game. The rest of the second quarter was straight football with the Orange and Blue team in possession of the ball most of the time. "Erve" Meierhoff replaced Mel Rugen at right end for the locals and on the first play "Erve" recovered a Spartan fumble to give the locals the ball but the scrappy opponents forced the locals to punt.

"Bubbles" Tuttle continued to star for the Orange and Blue. He smashed the Spartans line to pieces. He continually hit the line for 3 to 8 yard gains and on no occasion was he stopped for no gain. "Tony" Borre sped around the end for nice gains while Bohannon thrilled the crowd with his spectacular wide end runs. "Swede" Clavey at center for the locals smeared the opponents' line plays with his usual brilliancy. The left side of the Glenview line made up of Alvord, Werhane, and Freddie Rau was particularly strong but the other side of the Orange and Blue line was by no means weak either.

The third quarter started with the Orange and Blue receiving. Both teams showed the defensive strength and the third quarter was a punting duel. Near the end of the third quarter Tuttle intercepted a Chicago pass and ran about fifty yards but was unable to get past the last man who spilled Bubbles. The quarter ended with Glenview in possession of the ball.

At the start of the fourth quarter several new men came in for Glenview and the Spartans put in the first string men. The Spartans then thrilled the spectators with one of the most effective passing attacks that has been seen in this vicinity for quite a while. Coach Brown rushed in Borre and Hanke to break up the passing attack. Several of the Spartans passes were knocked down and the visitors were forced to punt. Bohannon receiving the punt signalled for a fair catch but a Spartan end tackled Bohannon and Chicago was given a 15 yard penalty and the ball was put in play on the locals 20 yard line. On the first play Bohannon circled right end for a nice gain but the Orange and Blue star was penalized for hurdling and the ball was in possession of the locals on their own five yard line. Just as Bohannon punted from his own end zone the game ended with the score 6-0 in favor of the Orange and Blue.

Next Sunday the Orange and Blue team will travel to Wilmette where they take on the strong Wilmetts A. C. The game will start at 2:30. Lets have a large crowd follow the team on their first venture on opponents' gridiron. The boys will play a lot better if they have a crowd there to cheer them on.

Restaurant Robbed in Wheaton Monday

Early Monday morning burglars broke into the Wheaton restaurant on East Front street, and robbed a safe of $300. The safe which was broken open by a sledge hammer was discovered by one of the proprietors about 5 o'clock as he opened for the day's business.

Entrance to the restaurant was made through a back door. The burglars bored a hole above the door lock through which they reached to pull back an inside bolt lock.

So far nothing has been discovered in the way of a clue as to

DesPlaines Theatre Shows Next Week

FILM PRIZE PLAY

Bringing a stage play to the speaking screen and at the same time making it of absorbing interest and entertainment value to the audience might seem a difficult task, but Victor Fleming has accomplished it with his production of "Common Clay" with Constance Bennett enacting a leading role, opens here next Sunday and Monday at the DesPlaines theatre.

Taken from Cleves Kinkead's Harvard prize play of the same name, "Common Clay" presents in vivid fashion the drama of a girl of the people, whose love for gaiety and dancing lead her into an ever-tightening web of circumstances. Miss Bennett is said to surpass even her notable work in "Son of the Gods" by her performance in this offering, and Lew Ayres, who leaped to fame in "All Quiet On The Western Front," plays the masculine lead opposite her.

BUSTER KEATON FINDS NEW USE FOR MUSTARD GAS

Mustard gas as an adjunct to a film comedy seems peculiar, but it was found extremely useful in Buster Keaton's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "Dough Boys," which will open Tuesday October 21, for two days at the DesPlaines theatre.

The picture, a comedy of war, was staged with elaborate battle scenes. To wit: a forest in which trenches were dug, to give the appearance of a battle torn field, an airplane was employed to spray trees with the gas.

Edward Sedgwick directed the new Keaton opus, in which Sally Eilers plays the heroine. The cast includes Cliff Edwards, Frank Mayo, Eddie Brophy, Pitzy Katz, Victor Potel, Arnold Korff and William Steele.

Itasca Department

The Itasca Womans club held the first meeting of the opening event year at the home of Mrs. Elmer Kurzka Tuesday afternoon, the president, Mrs. L. A. McKenzie residing.

Mrs. Paul Spierling read the club's report after which a business session was held. Chairmen of the various departments received outlines of the work to be accomplished this year. The Woman's club sponsors the Itasca Public library and they hope this year to make rapid progress in its development.

Following the business session, Miss Dorothy Phillips of Elgin, an interior decorator of Ackerman's department store, gave an interesting talk on decoration of the home, demonstrating with drapes, rugs and tapestries suitable color schemes for rooms. She was assisted by Miss Nettie Phillips, of Elgin, who is also an interior decorator.

This little talk is quite appropriate at this time, it being at the time of year when friend wife wants to dress up the home.

The next regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held at the home of Mrs. U. S. Baker on Irving Park Boulevard November 11.

Saturday, October 18 will be observed as "tag day" for the Public Library. Mrs. Earl Pruess is chairman of the drive.

Members of the club are planning a trip to Armour Company's plant via chartered bus. Anyone wishing to go are requested to apply to Mrs. Andrew Madsen.

Members of the Lutheran ladies aid are selling tickets to a Plunkett dinner to be given in the parlors of the church Tuesday, October 21 at 6:30 p. m. Tickets are 50 cents to adults only.

The Dorcas Circle of the Presbyterian church gave a church supper from five to seven o'clock Thursday evening.

Special services are being held every night at the Evangelical church. Rev. Schriver is being assisted by the Gideons. The services are interesting and many are availing themselves of this opportunity of hearing the gospel. Every night has a special attraction. Every night a new subject.

Mrs. Johnson entertained the members of the Evangelical church missionary society at her country home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Schriver will conduct the study hour on the subject of "Japan; the first chapter of the book 'The Crown of Witnesses' will be reviewed.

The Itascans held the annual business session at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. The report of the session announces president James Speckman; vice-president Benny Schlarau; secretary Lilian Kolse; treasurer, Evelyn Kolse. Meetings hereafter are scheduled to take place every two weeks on Thursday evenings at the church.

Messrs and Mesdames Herman Hoffman and Albert Benninger with their families attended a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Huebsch in Chicago recently. The evening was spent in a social manner with a luncheon.

The Dorcas Circle will hold the regular meeting on Friday afternoon. This will be a business session and members will finish a quilt that is nearly completed.

The Parent teacher association will hold the regular meeting Monday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sell of Arlington Heights were guests Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maluck and small daughter visited over the week end with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pfluger will soon be occupying their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gorrell visited Sunday at the home of Darwin Baker's in Elgin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Chessman returned Tuesday from their honeymoon trip to California and are now at home on North Maple St. Though Mr. and Mrs. Chessman escaped a formal write-up of their wedding, their many friends wish them a long life of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luehring called on Mr. and Mrs. Wolkenhauer of Bensenville Sunday. Mrs. Wolkenhauer continues very ill and is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Lange.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Baker of Pasadena, Cal., spent the day with his cousin, Mrs. James Lake, last Saturday.

At the Pfluger-Baker wedding a blue enameled brooch was lost in basement of church. Return same and receive reward to Mrs. E. N. Lake.

Ralph Lake has resumed his studies at Armour Institute.

E. N. Lake was on the sick list last week.

Lakes entertained their new pastor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hanger, last Sunday.

ITASCA EVANG. CHURCH
The Gospel services which opened Sunday night with Mr. Oettinger of the Gideons in charge continues with increasing interest. Thursday night Nim and Neiland the Rainbow Record singers will be with us and with their instruments will bring up a gospel treat in song and testimony. Other speakers will be, Friday night: Salzgeber, Betz and Rylander. Sunday evening Rev. Derry and some others are to be with us. Next Tuesday Rosen, Urquhart and Taylor. Each evening except Saturday we have services at 7:45 and you are invited. Come and bring a friend if possible.

Sunday school at 10:00 each Lord's Day and worship at 11:00. Special music also at each service of worship. A fifteen minute address relative to our Deaconess hospital will be a feature of the morning service this Sunday. There is no passion which steals into the heart more imperceptibly and covers itself under more disguises than pride.—Addison.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Paul R. Spierling, Minister
Sunday, October 19, will be a special day at our church, a day of significance both to the minister and to the congregation. At this time the minister will be formally installed by representatives of the Chicago Presbytery as pastor of this church. The Rev. Andrew C. Zenos D. D., L. L. D., Dean of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Chicago, and Stated Clerk of Chicago Presbytery will be in charge of the service and in addition to the duties of Moderator will give the Charge to the Congregation.

The Rev. Henry S. Brown D. D., executive secretary of the Chicago Presbytery and Superintendent of the church extension board will give the Charge to the Minister and lead in the installation prayer. The Rev. A. A. Hays D. D., professor of church history, Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Chicago, will preach the installation sermon.

The choir is preparing special music. This service will be held at the regular church hour 11 a. m. We are looking forward to a great service of worship and inspiration. The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 3 and 6:45 o'clock. The leader for the Young People's society is Jean Schuette.

At 7:30 we shall have a program on India. Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society the work of our Church in India will be presented in the form of an illustrated lecture. Significant events are taking place in this land and statesman, the world over are watching developments in India with interest. We will do well to renew our acquaintance with this land at this time.

On Tuesday evening a number of our congregation will drive to River Forest to attend the open meeting of the Chicago Presbytery retreat. The retreat is conducted primarily for ministers but the evening meeting is planned for both ministers and laymen. We expect our church to be well represented on this occasion.

Maurice Chevalier On Chicago Screen

Maurice Chevalier, the real personality of filmland, comes to the Chicago Theater next Friday in the Frenchiest role of his illustrious screen career. His latest picture, "Playboy in Paris." The story was actually revamped to fit the character of the debonair Maurice Chevalier. He is employed by the proprietor of a French Tess Shoppe, acting in the capacity of waiter. In due time he becomes heir to a vast estate totalling 1,000,000 francs.

Ziegfeld's "Whoopee" Now at United Artists

Eddie Cantor, the greatest singing-comedian on the stage today, completed the all-talking, all-color, and all comic musical show of the season, "Whoopee," now playing at the United Artists Theater. Mr. Ziegfeld, who acts as a theatrical guide for this illustrious star, devised and staged this musical comedy for the legitimate stage also took a great part in recording it for the audible screen.

"Whoopee," which implies just what the title means, was one of Florenz Ziegfeld's greatest stage productions. It carries the Ziegfeldian touch. It contains the ravishing beauties, the costumes, and the dance sequences that only a Ziegfeld can do.

Candidate Lelivelt's Pointed Challenge to Senator Huebsch

A challenge to Senator Arthur A. Huebsch, of the Seventh Senatorial district to take the people of his district into his confidence and explain certain items chalked up against him, has been hurled at him by Attorney Joseph J. Lelivelt, of Maywood, candidate on the democratic ticket for state senator from the Seventh district.

Mr. Lelivelt, who is making an active campaign through the district, insists that a senator from the Seventh district should represent that district and not be the force that brings about discriminating legislation against his own district. In that connection he asks Senator Huebsch to answer to the public and residents of this district the following questions:

"1—Are you the Senator Huebsch who sponsored and worked for the Illinois gasoline tax of three cents after the Supreme Court had declared the Small two cents gas tax illegal?"

"2—Did you sponsor the tax revaluation legislation on promise of being named Illinois State Tax Commissioner and bring about the situation that increased practically every piece of property in the Country Towns while loop property was reduced more than $500,000,000.00?"

"3—Were you chairman and was it your commission that recommended to the legislature a State Income Tax in addition to the other increases in taxes that have caused the loss of many homes in the Country Towns?"

"4—Were you the author of the now special assessment law which forces property owners to pay in full for special assessment levies, where work to be done has not been completed?"

"5—Are you the same Arthur A. Huebsch who held $5,000.00 received from the Sanitary District while you were vacationing in Europe, for two years and then when it appeared you were to be prosecuted you returned the same declaring you had not earned the money?"

"6—Are you the author and sponsor of the Huebsch registration law in the Country Towns districts of Cook county, all of which you represent, with the exception of Evanston, Oak Park, Berwyn and Cicero?"

Mr. Lelivelt, who is pledged against dishonest secret fees, opposed to high taxes and pledged to work for the same utility rates in the Country Towns as are enjoyed by the City of Chicago, declares that he believes the people who are called upon to either approve or disapprove the representation given them by Senator Huebsch are entitled to know his side of the story. He maintains the only way they can know it is by Senator Huebsch presenting the facts as he views them and explaining his sponsoring of things detrimental to his district—and if he does not desire to face the public with his record that he should withdraw from the race.

NORTHFIELD EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Rev. C. Zager, Minister.
10 a. m. Sermon by the newly appointed minister.

11 a. m. Sunday school in charge of Maurice Miller.

Wednesday, 8 p. m., prayer meeting and choir rehearsal.
Owing to resignation of Rev. M. C. Gell, as minister of Northfield church, because of having accepted a position as Professor of Religious Education at Northwestern University, Evanston, where Mr. Gell received the Doctor of Philosophy degree last June, Rev. C. Zager has been appointed to supply the pulpit until the meeting at annual conference in April.

Mr. Zager and his wife will probably move into the community some time this week. A cordial welcome awaits him and his wife as they take up the pastorate among these very loyal people.

Cause of Costly Quake
According to the state earthquake commission, the immediate cause of the San Francisco earthquake of 1906 was displacement of strata along an extensive fault line. In many places the movement amounted to a permanent shift of 10 to 20 feet. The line was well marked and understood before the earthquake. It has been associated with the process of uplifting the coast range, but cuts independently across some of the ridges.

Infantile Paralysis
From about June 1 until the first week in December, infantile paralysis is most prevalent. The number of cases in this period will be approximately 1,000 per cent greater than in the winter months.

More Education Needed
Our faith in the advance of education is shaken every time we read about fellows who lose money in any of the ancient race track swindles.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

WHEELING DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Robert Gisselbrecht was confined to her home because of illness last week.

Miss Ruth Hartmann, of Chicago, has been visiting her grandparents, the Vm. Schmidts.

The Arthur Fallscher family spent the fore part of the week with relatives in Wisconsin.

The P. T. A. of Wheeling public school are making plans for an invitation dance which will be held at the Union Hotel on Saturday evening, Nov. 1. This will be an old style dance with music adapted to the taste of the older generation as well as the younger. Those desirous of receiving an invitation are advised to get in touch with a member of the P. T. A.

Master Hudson Holtje entertained a group of young friends in honor of his birthday last Saturday afternoon.

A woman soliciting in the name of charity met instant death upon crossing Milwaukee avenue last Saturday evening. She had left the Hartman House a few minutes before, and was crossing the road to go to the "Our Farm Barbeque" when the accident occurred. Those who witnessed the scene said she deliberately walked into the path of the approaching car, making the tragedy unavoidable on their part.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schmidt and family and Miss Margaret Seiler are away on a few days vacation, which they are spending in Wisconsin.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning worship, 10:45 o'clock. Evening Fellowship service, 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday church school, 9:30 o'clock a. m.

At a recent meeting of the choir plans were made for holding regular rehearsals but twice a month on the second and fourth Thursdays. Thursday, Oct. 23, will be the next meeting. All those who sing are invited to join the choir.

EAST MAINE

Clarence Schnur is the proud owner of a new Dodge sedan having traded in his Ford coupe on the deal.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Nelson attended the teachers' meeting at Northbrook, Friday, Oct. 10, so the pupils enjoyed a vacation.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Matthew's Lutheran church two Sundays, Oct. 19 it will be in the English language in connection with the regular English services and on Oct. 26 it will be in German. Announcement is to be made the Fridays preceding.

Miss Mabel Steil left Monday morning for two weeks visit in Denver, Colorado, accompanying her sister, Edna, who, after spending several weeks at her home here, has returned to Colorado for the winter months.

St. Matthews congregation were recipients of an invitation to join the Jerusalem congregation at Morton Grove in their annual Mission festival celebration Oct. 12. Numerous members attended.

Among other things taken up and passed on at the business meeting held by St. Matthews Lutheran congregation Sunday was the decision to enlarge and improve the parsonage. Several bids were presented and the one by Elmer W. Stoll, Glenview, was accepted and the job turned over to him. Work on the project will be started immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jaacks were host and hostess to a small crowd of relatives Thursday evening, Oct. 9, at a little celebration in honor of Mrs. Jaack's birthday. A delightful time was enjoyed by all. Miss Clara Geweke planned to motor to Champaign to attend the Illinois-Northwestern football game and homecoming celebration, Oct. 18.

The fact that there were several weddings and wedding anniversary celebrations in the near vicinity Saturday evening seemed to have little or no effect on the size of the crowd who attended the "hop" given by the East Maine baseball club at Virginia Grove, Oct. 11. Not only the home crowd but young folks from miles around attended and enjoyed the hospitality of this crowd of congenial young men. The orchestra, consisting of Joey Ahrens and Johnny Goettsche, assisted by two new artists, "Jackie" Jacobsen and Ted Rosenau won hearty applause for the excellent music provided liberally throughout the evening. Everyone had such a good time, the boys were prevailed upon to announce that they would give one more dance this year. November 15 is the date selected. Virginia Grove, the place and another good time is assured all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jaacks entertained a crowd of about 100 guests Saturday, Oct. 11, in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. The supper hour lasted from 5:30 until all the guests had partaken of the sumptuous repast provided. Later in the evening an exciting game of lunco was enjoyed by the ladies after which all joined in general merrymaking and danced the hours away with Artie Schuknecht furnishing the music. A variety of useful gifts were presented the ten-year bride and groom which will serve as happy reminders of the jolly occasion.

Services next Sunday as usual. In the German language at 9:30 a. m., and in English at 10:40 a. m. The Young People's Society will meet next Thursday evening, Oct. 23, at 8 o'clock.

A stereopticon lecture on the Mission activities of our church on the South American field, will be given this evening, (Friday), at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Otto Beer, who has been active in this work for a number of years, will be the speaker. There will be no charge for admission; however, a collection will be taken for the benefit of an individual needy mission in Brazil. The public is cordially invited to attend. What the Lutheran Church Teaches Augsburg Confession Art. 20: Of Good Works

Forasmuch, therefore, as the doctrine concerning faith, which ought to be the chief one in the church, has lain so long unknown, as all must needs grant that there was the deepest silence in their sermons concerning the righteousness of faith, while only the doctrine of works was treated in the churches, our teachers have instructed the churches concerning faith as follows:

First, that our works cannot reconcile God or merit forgiveness of sins, grace, and justification, but that we obtain this only by faith, when we believe that we are received into favor for Christ's sake, who alone has been set forth the Mediator and Propitiation, 1 Tim. 2, 5, in order that the Father may be reconciled through Him. Who, ever, therefore, trusts that by works he merits grace, despises the merit and grace of Christ, and seeks a way to God without Christ, by human strength, although Christ has said of Himself: I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, John 14, 6. This doctrine concerning faith is everywhere treated by Paul, Eph. 2, 8: By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, etc.

Furthermore, it is taught on our part that it is necessary to do good works, not that we should trust to merit grace by them, but because it is the will of God. It is only by faith that forgiveness of sins is apprehended, and that, for nothing. And because through faith the Holy Ghost is received, hearts are renewed and endowed with new affections, so as to be able to bring forth good works. For Ambrose says: Faith is the mother of a good will and right doing. For man's powers without the Holy Ghost are full of ungodly affections, and are too weak to do works which are good in God's sight. Besides, they are in the power of the devil, who impels men to divers sins, to ungodly opinions, to open crimes. This we may see in the philosophers, who, although they endeavored to live an honest life, could not but be defiled with many open crimes. Such is the feebleness of man when he is without faith and without the Holy Ghost, and governs himself only by human strength.

Hence it may be readily seen that this doctrine is not to be charged with prohibiting good works, but rather the more to be commended, because it shows how we are enabled to do good works. For without faith human nature can in no wise do the works of the First or of the Second Commandment. Without faith it does not call upon God, nor expect anything from God, nor bear the cross, but seeks, and trusts in, man's help. And thus, when there is no faith and trust in God, all manner of lusts and human devices rule in the heart. Wherefore Christ said, John 15:5: Without Me ye can do nothing; and the Church sings: Lacking Thy divine favor, There is nothing found in man, Naught in him is harmless.

TRY 'QUICK CHANGE' GAME ON DRUGGIST

Quick Witted Proprietor Ten Dollars to the Good from Call

An old "quick change game" played on the Prairie-Lee Pharmacy (one block southwest of the Des Plaines State Bank) about 2:30 o'clock yesterday (Thursday) afternoon, netted the proprietor, Mr. Albert W. Reiker, ten dollars to the good, thanks to his quick action.

There were three crooks in the party, one driving a Reo car, one a "spotter" or scout at the door, and a third who rushed in when the proprietor was busy with a customer, to get the boy clerk hurriedly to change a $20 bill which was presented. While the boy was getting out the change from the cash register, he was urged to "hurry" by the "quick change" artist, substituting a $1 bill for the $20, in the rush, and also stepped in behind the counter by the cash register, as if to grab still more money from the till and make his escape.

The proprietor, who has kept store enough to quickly recognize the game, dropped his waiting on the customer and stepped to the cash register, took the twenty, and stopped the boy handing out the change, saying, "I'll take charge of this." At the same time he grabbed his own gun from behind the counter, and held the thief back by the soda fountain while he counted the money to see if any was missing. He found ten dollars more than he had before.

He asked the man if he would be satisfied if he had just the ten back and the thief said, "Yes." But Mr. Reiker stepped to the phone to call the police, and the man ran out of the store, Reiker after him, the man running in and out of the parked cars, finally stepping on the running board of the Reo in which he had come, and made his escape. Reiker got the license number on the car, and this may be a clue. Anyway, he is ten dollars to the good.

Five Generations of Fritsch Family Have Lived on Homestead

The Fritsch family, who departed from Muldersholz, Mackholsheim, Alsace-Lorraine, in 1830, came to Warren, Pennsylvania, when their son, David Fritsch, was 10 years old. They remained in the Quaker state until 1842, when they came to East Northfield and bought a farm from Mr. Madison, one of the earlier settlers who had come in the thirties. This farm was next to the cemetery of the Lutheran church on the south side of the Dundee road, next to the farm of Lawrence Koebelin, who gave the land for the cemetery and the Lutheran church.

John Fritsch lives on this ancestral farm now. He is a son of David and a grandson of Frederick Fritsch. On this ancestral farm have been living five generations, who all bear the name Fritsch and at the present time there are three generations left living on this farm.

The first generation was: Frederick Fritsch, born June 30, 1795, died March 30, 1855.

Second generation: David Fritsch, born Oct. 2, 1821, died Dec. 31, 1900.

Third generation: John A. Fritsch, born July 11, 1853, still living on the farm.

Fourth generation: Cyrus O. Fritsch, son of John A., born February 19, 1900.

Fifth generation: Cyrus John Fritsch, son of Cyrus O. Fritsch, was born June 24, 1925.

In the Fritsch home are found many relics, antiques, etc., a Bible is in the possession of John A. Fritsch, which was printed in 1845. John Fritsch is still living in the same house in which he was born in the year 1853.

Contributed by Mrs. John A. Fritsch.
